The whole of the enfe and testaurant owners of the Duchy of Gotha have resolved to sell no beer, and their customers have; equally, determined to order none, until the browers reduce their prices.

Writing home from the Dardanelles, Grantham man declares that he is having a "roally enjoyable" time. "What a rip-ping sound," he says, "is the noise of the guns when you fire broadsides in order to silence the enemy ! ".

M. Billerand, the French Minister for war, has decided to put the Hotel des Invalides in Parish to the use originally intended. One thousand mutilated soldiers will be admitted to this splendid " Hotel de la Gloire." Unly those without family or means will be accepted.

ERUTALITY TO BRITISH PRISONERS.

TERRIBLE STORIES OF GERMAN

TREATMENT.

(From "The Daily Telegraph "

Sir E. Grey's Protest.

April 23.) In The Daily Telegraph of Saturday were quoted some of the more notable passages in the voluminous White Paper describing the treatment meted out to British prisoners of war in Germanytreatment which Sir Edward Grey has 878 justly characterised, as "inhuman."

Owing to the very late hour at which the decument, was issued by the Foreign Office it was possible only to give originally captured." a general account of its contents, and to summirise a selection of the despatches. Some further extracts, bearing additional testimony to the studied ernelty shown towards British prisoners, bith inlitary and sivilian, are accordinggiven below.

One of the communications forwarded to the United States Ambassider by Sir E. Grey on Dec. 26 was an account by deleur writes: an American of a visit paid by him to the camp at Doberitz, near Berlin. There were, he wrow, 9,000 miserable med " in the camp.

These men are sleeping-200 to 500 to the tent-in horse tents which have been east off by the German cavalry. These tents are very old. Some of them. have been putched and thatched with torn and discoloured bits of canvas The present camp is only a makeshift. intended to bridge over the time until the winter barracks shall be completed. By this time they may be housed, in there permanent hute. Not one has had a bath since he was urine was almost asphysiating. first brought to the camp. It isn't likely that one will have a both while the war lests. When winter comes," and they move into the permanent wooden bearacks which have been provided for them, conditions must grow worse. They wil be huddled about stoves then, and in the lack of proper clothing will not keep in the open air. When a man can stand the torture no onger he is sent to the hospital. There he gett-not a bath-but a thorough daubing with a vermin-killing ointment. His clothes are disinfected. He is sent back to be reinhabited.

Some of them do their best to keep clean. In the centre of the comp a horse-trough, perhaps 50ft long, Into which water may be turned from a tap. It stands in the open air. Men who have money and can buy coup at the canteen wash their clothes in this trough. I they are particularly particular they etrip them eives and take, an ice-water both. The fall and winter climate Northern Germany is very severe. very shivering in our overcouts. we saw half-a-dozen men naked to was 5, rubbilly themselves down with water at the horse-trough."

AN UNIPPETEING MEAN. Second to me a great many of the Englishmen are very pale," I said the guard. Do they get enough to

He said they did, but that they didn't like it. The men receive a hunk of war bread, made of rye and potato flour with a cup of tea in the morning, and the same thing at night, with an occommonal chunk of samsage added. The one hot meal of the day is nt noon, when smels gets a pannikin full of a scripy itew of emblage and enrots and potatoes, or whatever other vegetuble inuy be handy, plus some meat.

"The Russians like that youp," said the guard. The Englishmen and Frenchmen do not. They als always feemplaining. - I saw that stew in the rough. Fer-hops I was influenced by my dislike for cabbago and carrots, but it seemed to the it was a mighty unappetising mess. I begun to understand why so many of

The men sleep in pairs in the tents on stray ticks. When we were there it had been raining for days. The dirt ling the day. Another American observer, in a statement made to the Army Council on Dec. 20, asserted that " British prisoners; and especially the officers, are kept on very short commons. There is a dearth of blankets and clothes amongst the prisoners. Many of them are in possession! only of the clothes in which they were

MAJOR VANDELEUR'S INDICTMENT.

One of the communications forwarded to Mr. Page was a report by Major C. B. Vandeleur, 1st Cameronians, attached to the Cheshire Regiment, who was taken prisoner on Oct. 13 close to La Bussee, and who subsequently escaped from Crefeld, where he was interned. Describing his journey to Germany, Major Van-

At about two p.m. we were all marched off to the railway station, being reviled at and cursed all the way by German officers as well as by German sol-'diers. One of our officers was spat on by a German officer.

At the station we were driven into closed in wagons, from which horses had just been removed, flity-two men being crowded into the one in which the other four officers and myself were. So tight were we packed that there was only room for some of us to sit down on the floor. This floor was covered fully Sin deep in fresh manure, and the stench of horse were boxed up in this foul wagon, with practiculty no ventilation, for thirty hours, with no food, and no opportunity of attending to purposes of nature.

All along the line we were cursed by officers and soldiers alike at the various stations, and at Mong Bergen I was pulled out in front of the wagon by the order of the officer in charge of the station, and, after cursing me in filthy language for some ten minutes, he ordered one of his soldiers to kick me back into the wagon, which he did, sending me spraw ling, into the filthy mese at the bottom of the wagon. I should like to mention here that I am thoroughly conversant with German, and understood everything that was said. Only at one station on the road was my attempt made on the part of German officers to interfere, and stop their men from cursing us. ,

Up to this time I had managed to retain my overcost, but it was now cibly taken from me by un officer at a few stations further on. On reaching the German-Belgian frontier, the French prisoners were given some potato soup. The people in charge of it told we that none was for us, but that if any left over after the Frerch had been we should get what remained. This is in accordance with the general treatment. of British prisoners by the Germans,

The English tion slit of any sort or description, and and French lashed back the tent flaps men were crowded into this even worse and ventilated the sleeping places dur- than they were in the wagon in which L was. They banged away continually on the wooden sides of the van, and finally, as I supposed the Germans thought that they might be suffocated a carpenter was got, who, cut a small round hole in one of the sides.

I am strongly of opinion myself that this brutal treatments of British officers and men on their way to a place of internment is deliberately arranged for by superior authority with the object of making us, as miserable and despicable objects as possible. The French officers were treated quite differently.

I also wish to state that ---, who arrived at Crefeld about December, told me that all the Irishmon at his camp were collected together shortly before he left, and were harangued by the commandant, who stated that the Emperor was aware of the down-trodden state of Ireland, and now wished that the Irishmen should be placed in a separat camp, where they would be better fed and treated differently from the Englishmen. He further stated that subsequently they went in a body to the commandants and said they did not wish to have any different treatment from their computniots.

To his account of the barbarities which British soldiers are subjected Major Vandeleur adds that the men are used solely for all mgmish duties and dirty work connected with the camps, such as cleaning out latrines and such like; also every other unpleasant fatigue

In connection with this the French orderlies at Urefeld stated to me that they were very sorry indeed to see th British soldier treated in such enoble, and disgraceful manner, being, in fact, more like slaves, the idea being to create ill-feeling between the French and British soldiers, by this means.

In his covering letter to fir. Page, Sir E. Grey calls attention to the fact that swhen Major: Vandeleur was a prisomer the German authorities refused to allow him to communicate to the American Ambassador in Berlin, a list of the British prisoners :

He had written soon after his internment to the Prisoners' Help Society at Berlin, and received a lotter in reply from Mr. Gerard on Nov. 3, in which he was asked to furnish a complete reof the British prisoners. He replied on Nov. 5 buckeying the roll, and thanking the Ambassulor for his interest. On Dec. 6 this letter was returned to Major Vandeleur by the commandant who stated that he had orders to prevent its being delivered.

was jour As further letter from Mr. Gerard was handed to Major Vandeleur a few days alter this, which had been addressed by Mr. Gerard to the commandant of the cump, again asking for a complete list prisoners. Major Vandeleur, was isked by the commandant to prepare the list, which he at once did, but the list-was handed back to him a few days later, with the statement that it would not be sent. " Your Excellency, who has believe, received several communica tions from Germans interned in Great Britain, will, I am sure, properly uppreciate this fincident.

PHYSICIANS AND HOSPITALS * ENDORSE IT.

MERMANY'S commercial development Was not in any way due to superior products. Far from that being the case, German commodities were but inferior imitations of the British in a great many instances. Where the Gormans did excel. however, was in the thoroughness with which they studied their markets and the efficiency of their selling organisations. The opportunity which now presents itself to British manufacturers is one which is never likely to occur again-at least it is devoutly to be hoped so.

But there are certain elementals which must be borne in mind For some years at least British commodities si l enjoy a preference here as a result of patriotic ferrour, but to attempt to build up a business on this four dation alone would be to ignore one of the fundamental char-

The only lasting foundation upon which public value for money. In this respect the Directors of the British Milk Products Company (Limited) have straightway shown their keen busin as acumen. This Company was recently formed under the K.C B., formerly Principal Medical Officer H.M. Forces in India (1898-1901) and more recently Surgern General of the Forces.

THE COMPANY'S OBJECTS.

The object of the company is to put upon the market a product called "Sanaphoa" replacing "Sanatogen" this country. The trade marks and potents of the latter product were the sole property of Johan Abraham von Wulfing, of 23 Friedrichstrusse. Ber in, and no British capital was involved in its production. Immovso profits were reaped, which obviously opriched an alien enemy. setting itself to capture this trade the British Milk Products Company is not only fulfilling a patriotic duty, but it is also proving that British enterprise is not

Its basis is milk, and it rotains all the active enzymes of the raw milk, a fact which is of the utmost physiological importance. It is in powder form, and neactically free from fat, and as fat in a dry nowder has a tendency to become rancic owing to exidation, the importance of this virtue is sufficient'y obvious to dispense with elaboration.

The preparation is an ideal reconstructive perve food. It is readily soluble. It is pleasing to the palate. Its value as a restorative for neurnsthenia; .onfeebled nervous conditions, and mental and physical fatigue, makes the present a par icularly opportune time for its production.

One of the first steps which were taken Products Company (Limited), was to offer large supplies of Sanaphos "as a gift to the Admiralty and War Diffice for the use of the hospitals, and also to the Red Cross Society. Several consignments of the the Belgian Relief Fund for the benefit of sufferers in Belgium.

"Sanaphos" is sold at a figure which brings it within the reach of all classes. By its prompt action the British Milk Products Company, has set an example of whit can be achieved by enterprise, and this is particularly true in view of the fact that the object aimed at is a lasting benefit to the public and not a temporary advantage. Thousands of physicians and nospitals have already "sent for supplies of "Sanaphos" and the reports of its remarkable efficier and superior flavour are most enthusiastic. "Sanaphos" can be obtained from chemists and baznars in bottles at a price which brings it within the reach of all, but should any difficulty be experienced in obtaining, a letter addressed to the makers, The British Milk Products Company. -The first (1913 on living in already wared several hundred foreigners associated with Japan appear in the book. Quite new materials and accurate sketches, both bonze utterly free from projudices.

Many portraits are inserted. The book contains over 1,400 pages. The price is yen 6 (12/-) or $3 per copy-Orders for the book should be accompanied by payment. Subscribers for the second annual editionof 'Who's Who in Japan' will be allowed a reduction of one yen. The registered postage is 18 cm, to Korea-

noticed this work in the highest terms. For example, The Daily Mail says :-Yet another 'Who's Who!' and this time from Japan! The reader is apt at first to regard it as a curiosity, as a sign that the East has now become Western practically almost to the last detail. But Who's Who In Japan' is far more thana curiosity; it is a very sound and unaful. reference book. It is printed in English. and contains brief biographies, on the accepted model of prominent men in Japana; Mr Kprita is a skilful editor and has done his work well.

But it is not only in speed and size that developments have been made. The "sight" of the submarine has been greatly improved, and the modern peri-cope is fitted with a compass by means of which it is possible for a helmsman to steer to fractions of a degree instead of as hitherto, to quarter-points only, By this, the accuracy with which r torpedo can be fired is greatly enhanced, and in the newest boats it is possible to obtain the bearings of an enemy ship from a distance of some miles away and set a course which without it being necessary to use the periscope again, will bring the bont to a point from which a torpedo may be fired with an absolute certainty of its hitting its mark. The carlier forms of periscopes were frail and leaky and a constant source of trouble. The new type are not only bust, but the glasses have no ten dency to become cloudy, and no matter in what position the object viewed may be, the image thrown is always erect, and not at times inverted, as in the older instruments. The bearing of the object viewed it indicated by a movable pointer on a fixed dial. ITALIAN DEPUTIES TO VOLUNTEER.

LONDON, May 20, 4.20 p.m. It is understood in Rome that a number of deputies will volunteer for service with the colours.

QUESTION OF PAYMENT.

LONDON, May 20, 4.20 p.m. Reuter's Faris correspondent states that a law has been promulgated opening credit payment for the cargo of the captured American ship Dacia. The American owners demand Frs. 3,820,750, but payment will be made on the basis of the market value of the merchandise in Rotterdam.

"NOTHING TO REPORT.

LONDON, May 20, 4,45 p.m. A Paris communique states that there is nothing to report.

THE CONSCRIPTION QUESTION.

In the House of Commons yesterday, on a motion for the adjournment of the House, a number of Ministerialists urged the abandonment of the voluntary principle for the Army and Navy.

Mr. Tennant, replying, asked the House to remember what such a change would mean, but be did not deny that the time might arrive when such a policy Note reaches the United States.

BAD WEATHER IN FRANCE.

" No Action Anywhere."

LONDON, May 20, The Paris evening communique states: The weather is still bad, and the fog is most dense. There has been no action anywhere. An attempted German might attack at Bois-le-Pretre was immediately checked.

EXCHANGE" OF INCAPACITATED CIVILIAN PRISONERS.

Germany Breaks Another Promise.

LONDON, May 20. Correspondence has been published by the Foreign Office relating to the proposed exchange of incapacitated civilian prisoners.

Sir Henry Howard concludes a telegram to Sir Edward Grey, dated the 3rd inst. by saying that he regrets to learn that Germany has broken faith with the Vatican by refusing to carry out the agreement for the release of incapacitated civilian prisoners to which Germany assented on February 26th.

TWO BRITISH STEAMERS SUNK BY SUBMARINES. Y

LONDON, May 19. The British steamer Dumfries has been torpedoed in the Irish Sea. Two of the crew were drowned.

A Corman submarine torpedoed the British steamer Drumeree off Cornwall. She was but little injured and was taken in tow by a Norwegian retekmer. The submorine, however, 'returned' and sank the Drimeree, the Norwegian steamer ascaping, but she returned and saved the British crew. THE MOTHERLAND, DOMINIONS, INDIA, AND PROTECTORATES.

A MEMORABLE MEETING AT THE GUILDHALL.

LONDON, May 19. There were most enthusiastic scenes at the imperial and patriotic meeting held at the Guildball to thank the Dominions, India and the Protectorates for their unparalleled services in the war.

There was a brilliant gathering on the platform, which included a number of Indian Princes, members of the Cabinet, High Commissioners of the Colonies and a number of prominent personages.

The Lord Mayor presided. The Rt. Hon. H. H. Asquith, the Prime Minister, paid an eloquent tribute to the sons and daughters of the Overseas Dominions whose record had been so magnificent that any Empire, he said, might take the hightest pride in it (Cheers). Their generosity, devotion and willingness to endure hardship and face death was due to no consideration of self-interest. We were now gathering in the hour of trial the fruits of a wise and far-sighted imperial policy. (Cheers.) There was no part of the Empire which would not suffer annihilation rather than become subject to any other sovereignty. (Great cheering. The Premier lengthily detailed the gifts of the Indian Princes and people, and mentioned that India had put into the field 26 regiments of cavalry and 124 regiments of infantry, and when they looked to the actual achievements of the forces of India, which had been so spontaneously dispatched and so magnificently equipped, then the battlefields of France and Flanders bore an undying tribute to their bravery. (Loud cheers).

The Rt. Hon. A Bonar Law, who delivered a glowing eulogy on the Dominions and their work, said he did not think it was fully realised all that the Indian soldiers had done. He believed that as a nation we had more reason to be proud of the spontaneous enthusiasm of the Indian Princes and people on behalf of their King Emperor and Empire than we had to be proud of the conquest of India. Lord Crewe said he desired to express the conviction that the recognition, by that meeting, of the answer which India had given to Germany would thrill the whole Empire. That answer had also been given by the Indian army, by the Princes of India at Home who themselves had drawn the sword-(prolonged cheering)—and also by others who had given with both hands. It was the answer of the whole people of India, the millions of India who had lavished their labours, gifts and prayers on behalf of the cause of which their beloved King-Emperor was the centre and symbol.

COTTON AND YARN.

Merry, Marroy F. Hutton and Cond Lbd., of Manchesour, in their weekly market report dated April 15, say !-We are still at the same level of cot ton values as last week although since core Tosh report the notice market has fluctuated rather violently. American prealton d to the extent of 20 points but hip to yesterday it had regained this docline and advanced still further, Egyptian also declined in value to the same extent but has strongthened again. The possible as to why soften should advance does not find a salisfactory answer and tone can only await developments. Som suggest an early peace, but this seem es far off as ever. The American consamption of retton is large as shown the monthly Census report, issued the week but this fact can only be a small flord in the general-question. In this market there has been a con-Binnous shrinkage in busidess during the much levy weeks in Piece Goods, same declining as the raw material has gimed in value until this week, with cloth prices at practically what they were fore the war there is very little doing. No have test of eloth values us usa "He party mean ha of last your and find, we cannot supply the grey cloth, without any question of Dyeing and Printing adparacel, as cheaply as tacky months

Kung Ping, for Ningpo and Shanghai. The colone difficulty becomes greater, Tangshing, for Swatow." & pach week and a many colores which have been obtainable are now out of the market. The increased demand for mani Lions of warrin the shape of explosives is the cause, as the Government have had to take the township raw materials which i Frithler, for Bungkok. the colour makers produce, for this pur pose, instead of allowing the makers t produce relour. It seems that as the Remand for explosives increases, 40 will polours be more difficult to obtain.

" The Board of Trade Export figures of Cotton Piece Cleads for last month show striking reductions on the corresponding month in previous years, Lorabay taking only 28 million yards as against 96 mil Hon yards last year and 89 million yards the previous year. The market is probably in a worse position than any other market as regards stocks, at that it is -hoped the reduction will help matters

Lawn Tennis.

The Wigwain Club, in their match tomorrow with Kowloon "A," will be repremented by the following: - C. Humphreys. E. le Breton, A. Hanson, H. Dreyer, C. D. Lambert and G. W. Sewell. The match takes place on the Wigwam Clab's gourts.

A large crowd of spectators watched the Enal of the Hongkung C. C. handicap mixed doubles competition last evening. attendance including H. E. the Governor and Lady May, B.E. Major-General Kelly C.B., and Sir William and Lady Rees Davies.

went to the former pair, the score being | W. W. Reed, Mr W. P. Marshall, Mr D. 6-3, 6-4.

Mrs Moxon played a brilliant game, her powerful returns and clever placing frequently rousing the spectors to applause. Hancock was as safe as usual, his net work being quite a feature. Nisbot's parter was mot up to her usual form and though Nisbets' clever play at the net and judicious placing holped to even up matters the winmers were easily the better combination.
